

Mark Stromswold

Riverview is a good steward of the land and a respected owner of cattle.

The water usage stated is the 'no rain' amount that must be used for consumption if no rain occurs.

Over 50% of water used during normal rain years comes from impervious runoff with on site storage. Just one example of forward thinking by a corporation.