

Elizabeth Brandt

There is no way this action benefits small dairy farmers, is a positive environment for the animals and is healthy for the environment.

This must not be allowed to continue.

The smell alone would be unbearable.