

Karen Locke

I am against this expansion. In addition to the harms of water usage and potential pollution, it would harm the economy because of the huge scale taking away the ability of smaller farmers to compete. Please deny their request.