

Mike Odell

Hello, I spend time in this area, and I am concerned with the proposed size and impact of this operation. This proposed development should get an environmental impact statement to ensure that harm isn't caused to the environment. I understand that this development would drastically increase water use, produce huge amounts of waste, potentially impact groundwater, and create an unpleasant odor. Requiring a full EIS seems very important.