

Heidi Peters

I strongly urge the agency to conduct an EIS on this proposed expansion before making a decision for the health of Minnesota's lands, its waters, its people, and its animals that would be at and around this site. Thank you for your consideration and the work that you do to protect our state's amazing resources for this and future generations!