

Sammy Johnson

I vote no. We don't want this. The land should go to the local farmers and their families that will take over the farming business for years to come.