

Jan Joannides

This type of consolidation in agriculture is not good for our environment, rural communities, water quality (and availability), or animal welfare. I oppose the expansion.