

Laura Aldrich-Wolfe

The proposed project requires a full environmental impact statement. Even without one, it is obvious that this project is incompatible with a state that values its lands and waters. CAFOs enrich a few at the expense of many, bringing minimal economic benefits and very high environmental costs.