

Kaitlin Kramer

The West River Dairy Expansion would result in enormous environmental harm to its surroundings; massive water use and waste output would be highly detrimental to the groundwater reserves and the Pomme de Terre watershed where the expansion would sit.