

Nicole Wagner

I think it is worth mentioning that 200+ Riverview employees were at the door two hours early to prevent citizens from being able to enter as the building was at capacity with Riverview staff. Some were able to get in but I have spoken to many people that were not. They should rectify this farce of a public meeting by using the high school which allows for 5 times the attendance.