

Kay Slama

The West River Dairy Expansion is too risky to approve--risky for our environment, bad for smaller dairy farmers, and likely to give the West River Dairy owners too much control over milk prices. An EAW is not adequate for such a huge expansion--we need an EIS to fully examine it and allow for greater citizen input.