

Josh Betcher

I support this project because Minnesota needs farms of all sizes. The existing laws have more than enough protections to ensure that the impact of the density of this proposed operation is a non relevant detail. This organization has shown the history and responsibility to properly manage all of the infrastructure to keep this size of operation conforming to all requirements and regulations.