

Andrew Falk

This must have an EIS. This is not farming but an industrial scale operation.

Riverview is nothing more than a corporate entity. It has Human Resources departments, accounting departments, logistics departments, lobbying efforts, all the things that a large corporate business entity has; not a family farm.

Please do the right thing and require an EIS.