

Rhona Wilson

An EIS should be ordered for this project due to its massive size, which is *11 times* larger than the minimum threshold for an EAW, its likely impacts on ground water and surface water, and the amount of greenhouse gases that are likely to be emitted. The estimated GHG of 66,324 tons per year is speculative and incomplete. A full EIS is necessary to determine the true impacts of this proposed operation.