

Kersti Malmberg

I think this expansion would be a catastrophic mistake. There is no need for a dairy operation that large, it would negatively affect the water first in the area surrounding the farm and spread out to the rest of the state and beyond. This drain on and contamination of natural resources is a colossal mistake in a very critic time for our environment. I'm staunchly opposed to this expansion.