

Julie Lloyd

There is way too much at stake here. There must be more information gathered before a decision of this magnitude is made without considering all the ramifications. We must protect our water and our family farms!! This huge operation will not only destroy the environment, but will also destroy many small farms. THIS IS NOT PROGRESS.