

Kim Carswell

I am writing about this proposed expansion. While I do not live in Stevens County I live in Minnesota and view this plan as an incredible precedent going in the wrong direction. The only benefits I see are for the business. The animals, the land, the neighbors, and the water will not benefit from this. And over time I wonder if the quality of the milk will be found to be compromised by this type of farming.

Kim Carswell

B.S.Dairy Husbandry, Michigan State University 1975