

Pixie Green

West River dairy must be required to provide an environmental impact statement! The expansion of factory farming in Minnesota will have devastating consequences on our lakes and our ground water, endangering people for generations to come. You must move to protect the people of Minnesota rather than the interests of big dairy.