

Brandon Semel

This proposed dairy is enormous, and it will create waste and resource demands greater than entire towns. It would be irresponsible not to require an EIS be completed to ensure that the proper safeguards are in place prior to the approval of this expansion.