

Kay Fuller

I have switched from regular ultra pasteurized milk to low temp pasteurized milk from small farms. I am opposed to larger and larger dairy farms. It seems like smaller dairy farms could employ as many people and it would be boom to small business. It also seems that raw and low temp pasteurized milk are coming back into favor. Please don't let this large dairy take over more small dairy farms!