

Amy Storbakken

I am concerned that Confined Animal Feedlot Operations produce unhealthy products, are cruel to animals, and impact air and water quality negatively. It seems likely that they would also create biohazards, fostering conditions that spread disease. They also could amount to illegal monopolies.

I encourage all these problems to be further investigated.