

Kathy Burt

This project should require an environmental impact statement. The size of this operation will have a negative effect on the surrounding area and beyond. Bigger is not better when resources will be gobbled up. This operation should not go forward.