

Jackie Colesworthy

I am opposed to this operation for several reasons. Having this many animals on a feedlot is inhumane treatment. The waste from them would be damaging to the environment, and I would never drink an ounce of milk from such an operation. Restorative, regenerative farming is the best way to treat animals and the soil they live on. Please turn this proposal down.