

Bonita Underbakke

The EAW is merely assurance by the proposer that all is well.

The Riverview Expansion project needs a thorough Environmental Impact Study to recognize risks across the board, and how, if possible, to prevent permanent damages.

A healthy rural future is essential; myopic focus on short-term profits is predictably destructive.