

Pat Peschman

I am writing to encourage you to deny the permit for the West River Dairy Expansion, a proposed massive operation. The environmental impacts of CAFO's is well known and cannot be denied. Negative impacts to water quality, increased greenhouse gas emissions, increased antibiotic resistance, and nutrient pollution to land from the massive waste are not what the community or the state of Mn need. I urge you to deny this permit.