

John LaFave

Please review this permit with extreme caution, it seems these big dairies only wreck our environment. There has never been any good that comes from having that many animals in one small location. If there was a sewage spill it would create havoc on the local people. Thanks for considering my thoughts.

John