

Lynne Riley

Please require an environmental impact statement with time for public comments from community members who will be directly impacted by this operation.

We can't continue to rubber stamp every request by agribusinesses to maximize their profits. As a state agency, your priority is the well-being of Minnesotans. Thank you.