

Mark Brakke

Simply based on the huge size of this project and its negative impact on smaller dairy operations I strongly object to this project being approved. We need to keep more Minnesotans active in our farm community. We do not want to turn over all food production to large businesses. The size of this proposed dairy operation is such that a detailed environmental assessment is essential.