

Oscar Galan Trejo

I believe it is important to protect the environment by ensuring proper manure management, preventing water contamination, and reducing air emissions and odors. Ongoing monitoring and sustainable practices should be required to minimize environmental impact and protect community health.

Thank you for considering my comment.