

David Israels-Swenson

I would really like to see a full environmental impact assessment on this plan. I appreciate the growth and diversity Riverview has brought to the Morris community but am concerned that an operation of this size may negatively impact our local water quality and believe that caution is merited.