

Todd Charnetzki

Having worked with Riverview LLC for many years, I would support this project. They are wonderful stewards of the land, cows, and environment they control. They actually help their neighbors do better through example and open communication.