

Heather Rykhus

I would not be in favor of granting this proposal. I think the potential for negative impact on the environment is huge with disposal of concentrated manure. I also think the cows deserve more of a real life then being held in a factory farm.