

Amy kephart

This is a terrible proposal. We need more small farms, family farms, not factory farms. As a consumer of dairy products, I urge the MPCA to deny this permit. The proposed size of the project is simply too large, and will have profoundly negative effects on the area's groundwater, air and neighbors, not to mention the animals themselves.

As such, approving it would make a mockery of the stated mission of the MPCA.

Thank you