

Douglas Lande

Requiring a full environmental impact assessment in this case should be required. A large CFO that degrades soil and water and air should not be allowed in a State that says it stands for a healthy environment.