

Michael Hutchinson

I am concerned that this will link Zumbrota's water with that of the proposed datacenter in Pine Island, that waste water with unknown solvents and chemicals will be pumped into Zumbrota and end up in our soil and then back into our drinking water. Otherwise, I think as long as we do not allow data centers or other large industrial facilities to hook into this, the proposed sewer district makes sense.