

Roxann Voigt

I am very concerned that this project was developed before the pine Island data center was an imminent threat to our water supply. How will this affect all these communities? Don't we need to stop and refigure the impact?