

Anonymous Anonymous

Please, please, tightened our emission controls for our mountain air. I moved to Albuquerque 8 years ago and believed the air was clean going for walks in the stunning foothills, but now i am using an inhalation aerosol for asthma. Reports that the ozone has gotten worst in the past two years. I've recently had two serious asthma attacks from the "desert dust." Do i need to move? Or will you act to clean beautiful Albuquerque's air?