

Roman López

Please support the furtherance of this bill. As we have seen with the fires in our forests this year climate change is not something we can ignore it is at our door step. We need all the available tools to protect our state and environment, and this is an important step.