

Roman López

Please support the furtherance of new clean car standards for New Mexico. As we have seen this year with the wildfires fighting climate change is not something we can ignore, it is at our doorstep. We need all the tools we have and cleaner standards and availability of cleaner cars will help greatly.