

Gail Crites

We moved to this area 23 years ago for the clean, healthy environment and the hiking. The amount of water, light, sound and air pollution this plant would generate is not in keeping with the area. Too many people would lose their access to a healthy and harmonious place to live.