

Robert Watson

Locating a concrete batch plant in Alto, NM would do untold damage to the air, water and road infrastructure of this area. Property and home values would be considerably diminished. The safety and welfare of both area residents and wildlife would be at risk by the increase in truck traffic. My wife and I urge the EIB to uphold the previous denial of this permit and not allow any construction to take place.

Bob and Barbara Watson