

Glenn Remington

I am a contractor in Lincoln County and believe the batch plant would be a good thing for the area. Giving us another source of concrete that is owned by Lincoln County folk. If the plant has the recommendation of the NMED and is in full compliance with all regulations, I should be granted a permit to operate.