

Brittany Fallon

As a longtime resident and homeowner in Albuquerque, I wholeheartedly support the adoption of clean car and truck standards. As our beautiful city grows with more people moving here each year, I want our home to remain vibrant with culture, not covered with pollution.