

Anonymous Anonymous

When I attended the meetings for public comment all the people involved in this were white women of privilege. As a minority retiree woman with a disabled husband I wonder if there is any diversity on any of these committees. I was told by two white women I didn't understand the issue and needed to buy a new car and take the tax break. Tax breaks don't help pay medical bills month to month.