

boyd Kapalamoto

I like the idea of modern technology on developing the EV but whys our governor trying to limit the citizen of America what type of car they should buy and drive. EV are too expensive and not every citizen can afford them.