

Anonymous Anonymous

Union employees are fighting for fair wages. Will fines for failing emissions be based on income of the violator? Will low income households get a break for not being able to afford to fix their cars to comply ? Working people need help