

James Hatch

Environmental Improvement Board and the Air Quality Board,

Please do not force this mandate on the great people of this beautiful rural state. Let the people govern themselves and make the best choice for themselves and their family. Economic hardships are very real for many people in this state, and this mandate does not help anyone! Please do not drive people to move away and/or spend their money elsewhere. Thank you,

James Aaron Hatch