

Ginny Schneider

We need to reduce emissions all around including cars and trucks. This applies to manufacturing as well. We also need to move truck traffic to rail by investing in our rail system, which would further reduce emissions and reduce the wear and tear on our roadways. Trucks do the damage of 400 cars.