

David Berryman

I am submitting my objection to any new rules or regulations regarding environmental laws. We currently have an excess of such laws that burden business and residents with unnessecary government overreach and red tape.

Just because California does it,doesn't mean we should too!