

Perry Webb

Please do not enact the Clean car rules. This is not good for New Mexico and the middle class. We want choice not mandates. We are concerned buyers will still go out of state. To buy affordable and reliable cars. We believe there is a future for electric cars but the mandates go way to far way too fast